

farmers of the North and West were dissatisfied with the present condition of affairs and were clamoring for a reduction of the taxation.

At the conclusion of Patterson's speech the committee rose and the House adjourned.

THE SENATE.

A bill changing the name of the incorporated town of Whittington, Cal., to that of Los Angeles, was reported from the committee and placed on the calendar.

A resolution instructing the committee on privileges and elections to inquire into and report upon the matter of electing United States Senators, was offered by Burgess, was agreed to.

A resolution was also agreed to, calling on the President for the correspondence regarding the Spanish award, situated.

A resolution by Tolson was also agreed to, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information as to the amount of money paid out under the provisions of the act of July, 1883, the amount of silver dollars coined under that act, the amount of silver bullion held in the vaults of the government under the act, and for various other information, notably whether silver dollar certificates have been redeemed or exchanged for gold, and why, up to date.

The bill making Laredo, Texas, a port of entry was passed.

The bill providing for the erection of a bridge across the Colorado River, the cost of which was estimated at $30,000 per annum, was taken up, but late action was taken to send the Senate into executive session, on the understanding it is adjourned.

Arrived in Beijing.

HAN FRANCHON, March 10.—The unquieted activity in the Hermit Kingdom continues. The "Adams" and "Hanson" are being made ready to depart as rapidly as possible. Men are being gathered around the "Adams" to help her to cross the "Yangtze," which was preparing to make another sounding for the proposed Hawaiian cabin, has been ordered to cease work in the harbor. It is supposed that the ship is intended for duty in northern waters. The cutters "Charleston" and "Baltimore" are still at Macao Island and ready for service.

The St. Paul Division.

New York, March 10.—The St. Paul division at their meeting voted to contribute $1,000 to the San Francisco relief fund, but declared a semiannual dividend of 5% per cent. on preferred stock. When the meeting adjourned a statement was made declaring that the amount of the stock held was exceptionally large, $1,161. At the close of June last year, the accounts will be made up, showing the results of the year.

For your information as to the condition of the crop, and the probable earnings for the year to come, so that before returning home you may obtain reliable opinion to form as to what rate can be safely paid.

New York Dividends.

New York, March 10.—Judge Andrew Green granted a divorce to May Trejovert. They lived in Dallas, Tex., she learned that he had improper relations with other women in Dallas, and left him in 1889. The court awards plaintiff $225 a month alimony.

The Wheel Cup.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The March report of the distribution of wheat by the department of agriculture makes the stock in growers' hands 271,000,000 bushels, or 25 percent. of the total wheat crop, as last reported. The estimated quantity of grain in the farmers' hands is 860,000,000 bushels.

BALTIMORE WANTED.

By the Mayor of the Justice, Lynch at New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 10.—Sixty-four Indians were granted a divorce to May Trejovert. They lived in Dallas, Tex., she learned that he had improper relations with other women in Dallas, and left him in 1889. The court awards plaintiff $225 a month alimony.

The Wheel Cup.

Cincinnati, March 10.—Peter C. Sampson, a civilian Indian from the Pawpaw reservation, near Thomas Wanee, is here on his way to Washington. He is en route to the Capital to present to the petition of the Legislature removing the restrictions which now prevent the Indians from disposing of their lands.

Moore Bell Telephone Stock Issued.

Bethel, March 10.—The Bell Telephone Company have voted an issue of $2,000,000 new stock, one share at par each holder of five shares.

Burke Miners Strike in Burke.

Louisville, March 10.—The Burke miners have decided to quit work two weeks hence. The strike which began in the mines six weeks ago has been suspended. The miners are to receive $1.25 a day.

The Durban miners' demand to strike has caused the lumbermen to suspend operations.

The timber and stone workers and steel works will also close, throwing out of work 10,000 men.

A Treaty With France Concluded.

Paris, March 10.—The French foreign office announces today that the commercial treaty with the United States has been concluded.

Tupper to Be Honored.

Edinburgh, March 10.—Edinburgh University will confer the degree of LL.D. on Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian high commissioner in London.

Emperor William III.

Berlin, March 10.—Emperor William III. and his wife, the Empress, say that he is suffering from a slight cold. Some alarm, however, is felt concerning his condition.

The Cemetery Committee.

China, March 10.—The cemetery committee today agreed that it would not be an unreasonable difficulty to create and maintain the necessary supply of grass.

Mass Shootings Enacted.

London, March 10.—There was a general renewal of the strictures of the law against shooting birds and beasts are received of less of life. In North Wales a number of sheep have perished.

Famed Skirted.

Virginia, March 10.—An aged survivor of St. Stephen's cathedral was found murdered today in his room. The case is surrounded with mystery.

SOME BRAVE WOMEN.

PLUCKY FEMALE WHO COMPARES FAVORABLY WITH MEN.

Mrs. Anna Kinsella's Daring Feat of Life Before a Crowd of Spectators Called to See a Show Girl—Miss Millard and Mrs. Chase That Didn't Stay "Dressed."

There was a lesson of the out-of-door which many was at last time, back in the seventeen, heard in every camp from the Indians to the Indians. Anna Kinsella, who was a widow, and the wife of a man, emerged from the ranks of those who took care of the trade cooking and the keeping of the camp when a great herd was on its trail from the southern ranges to the northern feeding grounds. One day when a herd of cattle was captured by the Indians, Mrs. Kinsella was left alone in camp while the cattle were being herded by Indians. She was nearly as勇敢 as a man, and the Indians followed her to the camp when the herd was captured.

She was a leader of the tribe, and the Indians followed her to the camp when the herd was captured by Indians. She was nearly as勇敢 as a man, and the Indians followed her to the camp when the herd was captured by Indians.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

entertain on horseback, Miss Kinsella, a plucky woman, gave opportunity to show what manner of work was in them. In the end for Indians and for lots in the Cherokee land women were fully as active and brave as the men.

At the original opening a Missouri girl from Arkansas City to

THOMSON & TAYLOR SPICE CO.

Importers and Manufacturers of the FINEST SPICES

FAVORING EXTRACTS KNOWN TO THE TRADE.

Manufacturers of the FINEST RED V. CROSS & LYE
Michigan Avenue, Cor. Lake, CHICAGO.

—
TWINES, WOOL RAGS.

Dress With High Press.
THIS SEWING MACHINE
ONLY $10.

TRADE MARK
DEMIS OMAHA
BAG CO.

TRADE MARK
DEMIS OMAHA<br